

Hands-on course , 2
day(s)
Ref : ISF

Participants

Members of an supply chain security team. Staff involved in the implementation of the ISO 28000 standard. Employees involved in operations related to a SCSMS. Auditors.

Pre-requisites

None.

Next sessions

ISO 28000, Supply Chain, Foundation, Certification

This course enables participants to learn about the best practices for implementing and managing a Supply Chain Security Management System (SCSMS) as specified in ISO 28000:2007, as well as the best practices for implementing the supply chain security controls of all domains of the ISO 28001.

OBJECTIVES

To understand the implementation of a Supply Chain Security Management System in accordance with ISO28000.

To understand the relationship between a Supply Chain Security Management System, including risk management and controls

To acquire the necessary expertise to contribute in implementing a SCSMS as specified in ISO28000

1\) Introduction to SCSMS concepts as required by ISO 28000

3\) Examination and certification

2\) Implementing controls in supply chain security according to ISO 28001

1) Introduction to SCSMS concepts as required by ISO 28000

- Presentation of the standards ISO 28000 family of standards and legal framework related to supply chain security.
- Introduction to management systems and the process approach.
- Fundamental principles of Supply chain security and physical security.
- General requirements: presentation of the clauses of ISO 28000.

2) Implementing controls in supply chain security according to ISO 28001

- Implementation phases of the ISO 28000 Framework.
- Documentation of a control environment.
- Monitoring and reviewing the controls.
- Examples of the implementation of controls.
- Certified ISO 28000 Foundation exam.

3) Examination and certification

- The exam covers the following competence domains :
- Domain 1: Fundamental principles and concepts of supply chain security.
- Domain 2: Supply Chain Security Management System (SCSMS).

Workshop

The Duration of "Certified ISO 28000 Foundation" exam is 1 hour.